SOME OLD PRINTS

There is in the Bloomfield-Moore collection a circular snuff box, the lid of which contains an exceedingly rare old print consisting of busts of three prominent men of the eighteenth century. It is a stipple engraving showing the fur cap portrait of Benjamin Franklin and heads of Voltaire and Rousseau, above which is the inscription, "Le Flambeau de l'Univers." Around the margin are the following names and dates: "Voltaire Né en 1694; Mort en 1778.

J. J. Rousseau Né en 1712; Mort en 1778. B. Francklin Né en 1706; Mort en 1790." This engraving is printed in subdued colors and bears the imprint of Blin, Paris, No. 17 Place Maubert.

A small, but choice, lot of framed prints, from the well-known collection of the late Dr. Alfred C. Lambdin, has been lent to the Museum by Mrs. Lambdin, and hung in a room on the north side of the building.
